Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III Yes No

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:

To promote long-distance running as a competitive sport and a healthy lifelong exercise. The club organizes road and trail races throughout the City of San Antonio and surrounding area. The club also provides training programs throughout the year to encourage running. CPR/AED and First Aid Training and Certification are offered to Certified Coaches and specific volunteers working in the kids' program.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a (Code:) (Expenses $ 150,384 including grants of $ 138) (Revenue $ 134,843)

Throughout the year SARR conducted a series of races offering running and walking competitions at a variety of distances, course types and levels of difficulty. The club emphasizes a safe and runner/walker friendly venue for all of these events, providing medical support, security, and logistical support to all participant and spectators. As a result, thousands of runners and walkers of all ages and fitness levels have been able to participate and compete. The Club also sponsors several meet-ups throughout the year to encourage individuals to walk or run in a group setting.

4b (Code:) (Expenses $ 36,016 including grants of $ 17) (Revenue $ 58,859)

The club conducted several training programs to improve the fitness of the training participants and to prepare them for upcoming road or trail racing competitions. These training programs are designed to prepare participants for running events at distances ranging in distance between 5K and 10K up to half marathon and full marathon distances and beyond. Volunteer RRCA-Certified Coaches, experienced mentors, and training group pace leaders ensure that participants in all training groups are prepared both mentally and physically to begin or continue a lifetime of health and physical fitness.

4c (Code:) (Expenses $ 757 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 0)

SARR maintains a website that is available to both members and the general public. On this website, SARR publishes a monthly President's letter (or newsletter) containing items of interest to the local running community. This is available to the general public free of charge on the SARR website at <http://saroadrunners.org>. SARR also provides the local community with an online events calendar that is open to the local community to post running and walking events, and to promote fundraising events through these events for other local charitable organizations. Additionally SARR maintains a Facebook page and a Meetup.com site to encourage runners and walkers of all ages to organize and participate in runs and walks throughout the week. In addition, SARR sends periodic emails to members and past participants informing them of upcoming races and training programs.
